Mc MONTICOLA 1936
ALUMNI EDITION

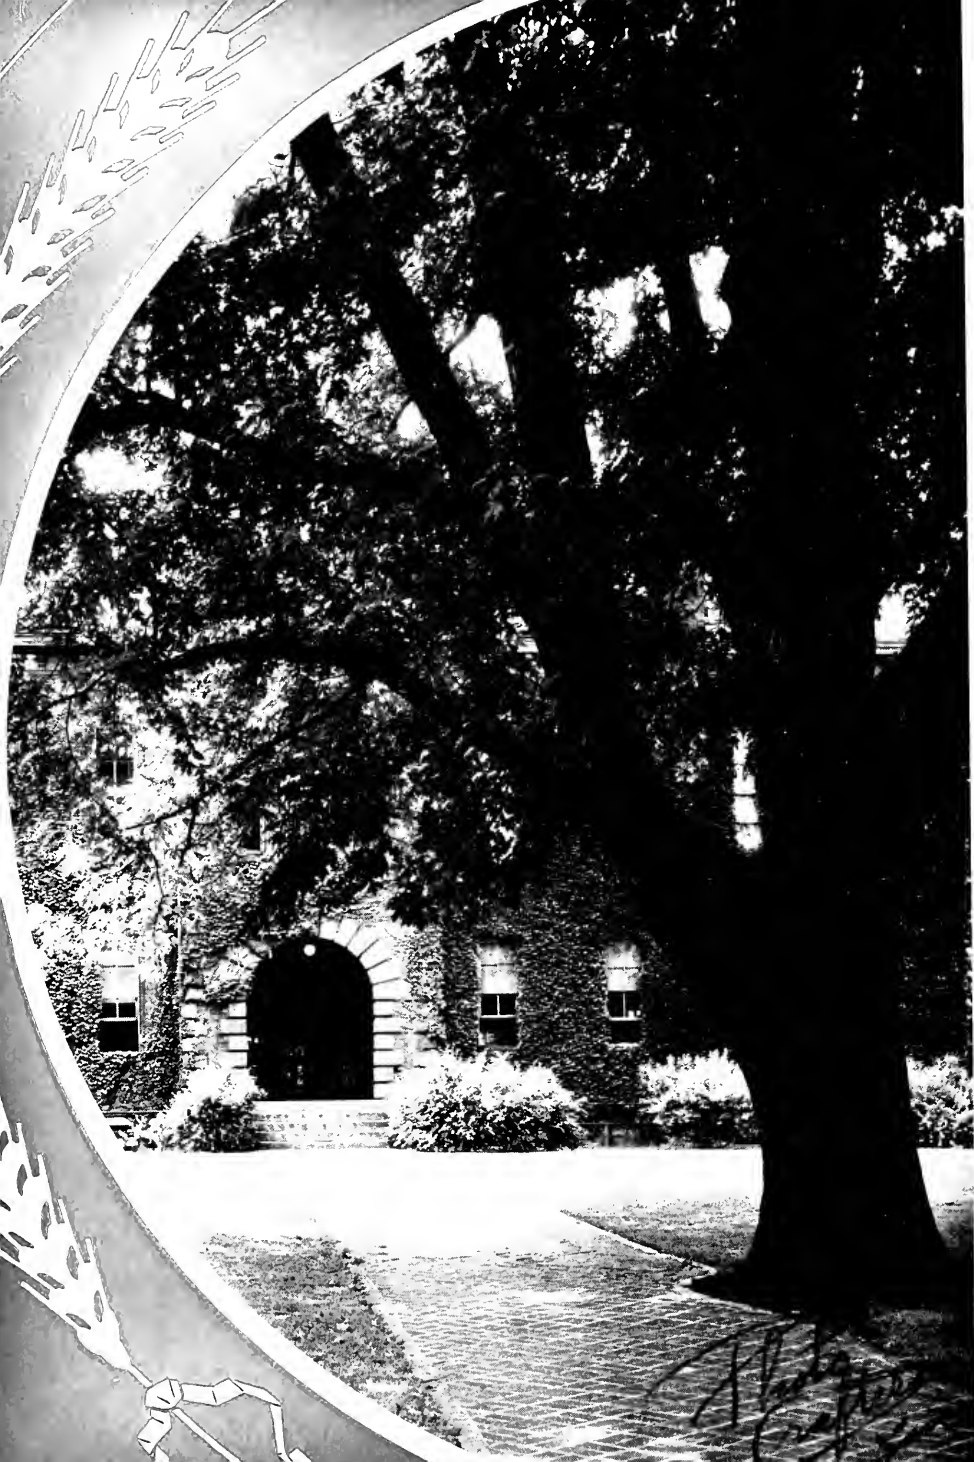

Seniors

THIS JUNE THOUSANDS OF SENIORS THROUGHOUT
THE COUNTRY WILL TURN ASIDE
FROM THE FAMILIAR PATHS OF LEARN-ING TO ENTER UPON A NEW ROAD OF
LIFE. WHO KNOWS HOW THRILLING OR HOW TERRIBLE THIS NEW EXPERIENCE MAY BE, WHAT VICTORIES OR WHAT DEFEATS WILL BE MET? THEIRS IS THE HERITAGE OF THE
WORLD; AND AS TENNYSON WRITES IN HIS "IDYLS
OF THE KING", "THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH, YIELD-ING PLACE TO THE NEW." THESE STUDENTS WHO ARRIVED AT COLLEGE AS FRESHMEN TO BE SHAPED INTO MEN AND WOMEN CAPABLE OF CARRYING ON THE BURDENS OF RESPONSIBILITY IN THE WORLD OF TODAY
ARE NOW SO FASHIONED AND EMERGE EQUIPPED TO LEAD HONEST AND HAPPY LIVES. THESE SENIORS WHO SOON ARE TO BE GRADUATED WILL, WE HOPE CARRY
THE NAME MONTICOLAE TO A HIGHER PLACE IN THE
SUN. THEY WILL BECOME MEMBERS OF OUR LEGION
OF ALUMNI, AND WE COUNSEL THE MEMBERS OF
THIS CLASS TO EMULATE THE EXAMPLES SET BY OUR ALUMNI, THOSE WHO HAVE PROVED
OUTSTANDING AND THOSE OBSCURE. WE PLACE OUR HOPES AND BEST WISHES ON
YOU, AND PRAY THAT YOU MAY SET YOUR STAR HIGH IN THE
SKY! IT IS NOW UP TO YOU
TO FACE THE FUTURE.

Managing Editor

AS YOU turn the pages of the 1936 Monticola, you will find a new, novel idea presented here. This year's edition is proudly dedicated to the alumni of West Virginia University. Here you see men from all walks of life who ardently support the Monticola by generously allowing us to reproduce their pictures. To them go our respect and hearty thanks.

In line with the theme of this book we present the seniors first, for they will soon join the rest of our alumni. Then come the rest of the classes in the order of scholastic preparation. Identifications and national chapter lists for fraternities and sororities have been added. Much color has been added to this year's publication, and for the first time on this campus a padded cover has been used. The freshmen pictures are individual ones — also used for the first time. The snapshot sections, which proved popular last year, have again been incorporated into the book.

THE Business Staff, upon whom rests the burden of financing this publication, is to be complimented for their work. A new system for the selection of "Miss West Virginia" has been introduced. Votes were given to any group for selling copies of the book, with the privilege of nominating a candidate for a certain number of earned votes. From the group nominated, the student body in a general election selected "Miss West Virginia" and seven other beauty queens, who are presented in the society section.

EVELENE MILLER
Asst. Business Manager.

Tackling the obstacles of several years of adversity, the members of the Business Staff went to work diligently and a great deal of the success of this edition belongs to them. It was their aim to give the students a fine book at the least cost possible.

Realistic reminders of life at the fraternity and sorority houses, the exciting afternoons at the stadium, parties at Cheat, dancing, and athletics, all mixed with the sobriety of professors and books . . . participating in one wonderful experience that is not to be forgotten — that is the aim of this Monticola.

THE MOUNTAINEER

GEORGE NYE GUTHRIE was elected this year to the distinguished position of West Virginia University's Mountaineer. This honor carries with it the tradition of many years, and is the highest that may be conferred on a member of the student body. Guthrie, our "human dynamo", has been outstanding in every department of student activity. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi, social fraternity, of which he was president during 1934-1935.

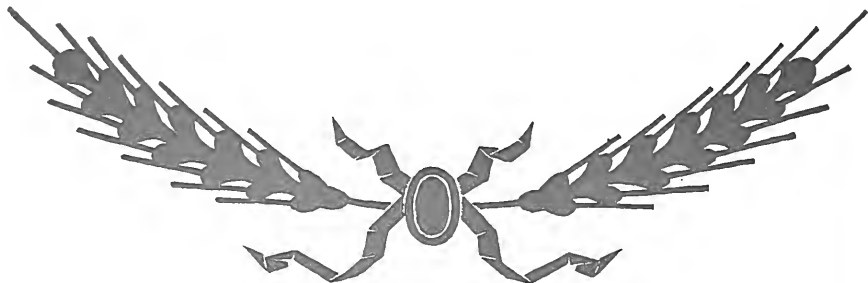

Guthrie is Summit of Mountain, men's honorary organization. He has served on the Interfraternity Council, and actively represented the University as a member of the 1936 Mountaineer Week team. He was manager of the football team, and is a member of Fi Bater Capper.

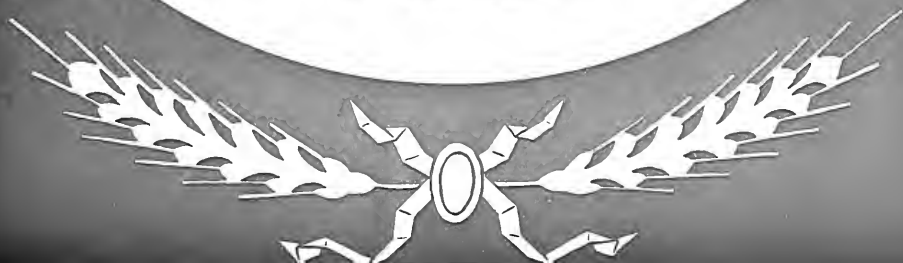

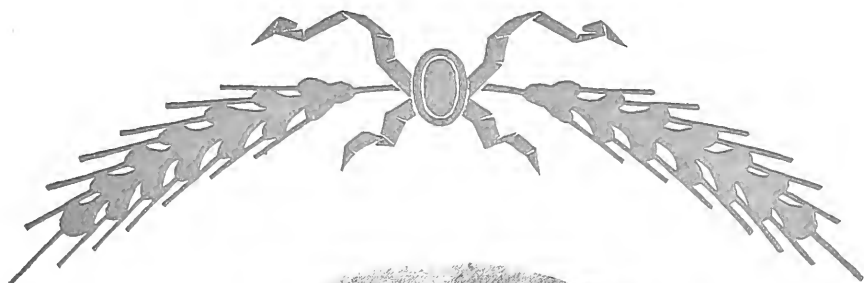

This Monticola feels that the Mountaineer presented in its pages will be outstanding among all the Mountaineers of the past and future, and will achieve great things for himself and his school.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION OF
UNIVERSITY PROBLEMS RESTS
IN THE HANDS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS, THE PRESIDENT AND THE DEANS OF THE VARIOUS COLLEGES, THE STUDENT COUNCIL, AND THE WOMAN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION. THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS CONSISTS OF A GROUP OF REPRESENTATIVE WEST VIRGINIA MEN WHO FORMULATE ALL POLICIES FOR THIS INSTITUTION. THE PRESIDENT AND THE DEANS MAKE UP THE EXECUTIVE GROUP AND CARRY INTO EFFECT THE DICTATES OF THE GOVERNORS. STUDENT AFFAIRS ARE HANDLED BY THE STUDENT COUNCIL AND THE WOMAN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE FACULTY. THIS YEAR MARKS THE FIRST UNDER OUR NEW PRESIDENT WHO HAS INSTITUTED A NEW SYSTEM OF COMMITTEES, CALLING FOR CLOSE COOPERATION BETWEEN THE FACULTY AND THE STUDENTS.

PRESIDENT BOUCHER

THE STUDENT BODY of West Virginia feels indeed fortunate in having as its head Dr. Chauncey Samuel Boucher, who, in his one year at the University has put forth portions of his educational theories, and at the same time has retained and even developed the Mountaineer Spirit.

Coming to West Virginia from the University of Chicago where he served as dean of the college of Arts, Literature and Science, Dr. Boucher brought with him a reputation of being an authority on education and college reorganization. He is also well known as an author of several books and articles, a majority of them being relative to educational problems.

The new president was born in Chicago, June 14, 1886. He attended the University of Michigan, graduating in 1909 with an A. B. degree. The following year he received a Masters degree. After studying at Harvard for one year and returning to Michigan he was awarded a Ph. D. degree.

He was associate professor of history from 1914 to 1919 at Washington university; associate professor of American history at Ohio State university in 1919-20; professor of American history at the University of Texas, 1920-23; professor of American history, University of Chicago, since 1923, and dean of the College of Arts, Literature and Science since 1925.

From 1928 to 1932, he was vice chairman of the board of review of the committee on institutions of higher education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member of the American Historical association, president of the Mississippi Valley Historical association; member of the Progressive Education associations committee on the relation of Schools and colleges, National society for the Study of Education, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Nu, Theta Delta Chi.

The general good-will created by the presence of Dr. Boucher in one year is indeed gratifying. The Monticola, sincerely expresses hopes for many similar "prosperous" years in the future for West Virginia University, and especially for the man himself as long as he is in any way affiliated with W. V. U., or any other field of service. He has proven himself to be an integral part of the Mountaineer institution!

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

West Virginia University

THE STUDENT COUNCIL of West Virginia University, having its hand on the campus pulse, is perhaps the best connecting link between the administration and the student body. It consists of nine members, five of whom are selected from the campus at large, and four of whom are presidents of the four academic classes. The president of the student body, John Blaker Herod, acts as its president in an ex-officio capacity. Fiscal matters are referred to the budget commission for review. This commission is an entirely separate organization which controls all student finances.

The Student Council makes all regulations concerning inter-class contests and relations, and reviews official acts of all other officers and committees.

In addition to their routine work, the Council lately has been backing the construction of a Student Union, a campus club where all students can meet socially. Problems, financial and social, relating to this project are under discussion, as is revisionary work on the constitution.

The Student Council engaged itself actively in "West Virginia Students at Home to their Parents" week-end, sponsored in connection with Greater West Virginia Week, which originated last year and was open to all University students desiring their parents attendance at the University's "open house".

Greater West Virginia Week, held in the early part of May, was officially opened by an address by President C. S. Boucher to the visiting parents in Commencement hall. This was followed by two drama presentations by the speech department: "Babbitt's Boy" and "Long Distance." A tea was held for Mothers on Saturday afternoon. A huge May festival was held Saturday evening in the Field House. It was followed by the Monticola dance in the Armory. On Sunday the churches held services and in the afternoon the various fraternal organizations held informal receptions. A band concert and the interfraternity and intersorority sings were held in the circle.

The personnel of the council includes: John Blaker Herod, president of the council and student body; Anna Cheesman '37; Eleanor Barnett '36; Harry Moats '36; Evelyn R. Crowell '37; William Eiland '37; John Condry '36; Robert Kyle '37; Charles Swing '38; and Benjamin Burnside '39.

Woman's Student Government Association

THE LARGEST women's government group on the University campus is Woman's Student Government Association. Every woman student on the campus is a member of this association, however, a student group of nine do the executive work.

The purpose of the W. S. G. A. is "to keep social life on the campus in unison and completely cooperative and happy." Disciplinary problems are minor and come up very infrequently.

The W. S. G. A. is the last resort for any disciplinary cases, which the under-committee are unable to take care of. The Sorority Advisory board, headed by Eleanor Barnett '36, deals with small cases arising in the sororities, while the Women's Hall advisory board concerns itself with hall problems.

This organization has one of the most systematic of mechanical set ups. Its executive council is the highest court, and holds weekly meetings. There are two judicial boards, one composed of the presidents of sorority houses and one of the houses in town. It is headed by the vice president of the executive council and meets every two weeks. The other judicial group is the Judiciary board of Woman's Hall. This is composed of advisory board members of these houses.

The W. S. G. A. has been extremely active this year in a social line. A tea dance was given for those students who were unable to go home for the Thanksgiving holidays. They sponsored a Leap Year dance, at which time the girls paid for the dance, called for their "dates" and "cut in" during the dancing. Many hall dances, formal and informal, were also arranged.

The W. S. G. A. has pledged itself to work for the Student Union building, which is being considered. A fund of $200 has been set aside for use at the time the structure is put up, while a fund of the same amount is being used at present to better the social life at the hall. Delegates have been sent to various conventions and conferences, including the W. S. G. A. national convention.

Officers elected this spring include: Anna Cheesman '37, president; Mary Frances Gibbs '37, vice-president; Marion L. Havener '37, vice-president; Catherine Shaffer '38, secretary; Anne Fromme '39, treasurer; Evelene R. Miller '37, senior representative; Billie Dotson '38, junior representative; and Jane Grimm '39, sophomore representative.

UNDERGRADUATE
BODY IS MADE UP OF THE SEN-IOR, JUNIOR, SOPHOMORE, AND FRESH-MAN CLASSES. TO THE SENIORS, WHO WILL SOON BECOME MEMBERS OF OUR ALUMNI GROUP, WE LOOK FOR GREAT ACCOMPLISHMENTS.
THE JUNIORS WHO HAVE ALMOST COMPLETED
THREE YEARS OF TRAINING WILL SOON ADVANCE TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE FORMER GROUP. EACH CLASS IS CLOSELY ORGANIZED WITH ITS OWN OFFICERS WHO IN TURN ARE MEMBERS OF A CENTRAL GROUP WHICH CON-TROLS THE AFFAIRS OF THE UNDERGRADUATE BODY.
THESE CLASSES FORM THE LIFE-BLOOD OF THE UNIVER-SITY, BEING REFRESHED EACH YEAR WHEN THE
FRESHMEN ARRIVE. THE UNDERGRADUATES
MAKE UP THE SOCIAL AND HONORARY ORGAN-IZATIONS AND HAVE THEIR OWN POLITICAL
INTRIGUES AND ELECTIONS. THE UNI-VERSITY LOOKS TO THE MEMBERS
OF THESE CLASSES TO UPHOLD
ITS TRADITIONS.

ATHLETICS
FORM A MAJOR AND
INTERESTING OUTLET FOR STU-
DENT ENERGY. A FEW YEARS AGO —
IN THE GOLDEN ERA — WEST VIRGINIA
TEAMS WERE FAMOUS FROM COAST TO COAST
IN PRACTICALLY EVERY SPORT, WITH SEVERAL NATIONAL FIGURES IN THE LINEUPS. TODAY, WE MAY NOT HAVE AS MANY FAMOUS FIGURES, BUT THE TEAMS ARE ALMOST AS FAMOUS. IN THE MAJOR
SPORTS, THE FOOTBALL SEASON PROVED MEDIOCRE, BUT THE BASKETBALL TEAM MADE UP FOR THE FORMER.
ALTHOUGH THIS TEAM FINISHED IN A TIE FOR THIRD PLACE IN THE CONFERENCE, IT DISPLAYED THE FINEST
FIGHT, SPORTSMANSHIP, AND SYSTEM EVER WIT-NESSED AT WEST VIRGINIA. THE BOXING AND
WRESTLING TEAMS FINISHED THEIR SEASONS
UNDEFEATED, CLOSING A WONDERFUL WIN-TER SEASON. WITH A NEW ATHLETIC

WITH Charles "Trusty" Tallman still at the helm, the West Virginia Mountaineers went through an eventful, if not a successful season. Captained by "Big Joe" Stydahar, playing his last year of college football, the Mountaineers were rated as one of the finest teams in the Eastern football circles.

Assisting Tallman were Frank Anthony as the line coach, and Carl Brumbaugh, formerly of the professional Chicago Bears. As in former years, Coach Ira "Rat" Rodgers did the scouting for the Mountaineers. The Mountaineers played a nine game schedule.

COACH Marshall "Sleepy" Glenn's Little Mountaineers, in the wake of injuries, scholastic failures, and other detriments, waged a unsuccessful freshman grid campaign during the 1935 season having tied one game and lost two of a three-game schedule.

The fourth game which was listed on a pre-season schedule, that with the Duquesne plebes, failed to materialize.

Alex Cava, flashy former Washington and Irving high school back, was precluded from football activity when he sustained a leg injury at the first of the season. Outstanding for their play were Audia and Zeller, at left and right half positions respectively.

SEASON IN

WEST VIRGINIA—0 WESLEYAN—0

The 1935 edition of the West Virginia football team took the field against Wesleyan for the opening game with the hopes of many fans riding high, but a combination of too much inexperienced material and the worst inaugural weather of several years produced a scoreless tie with the Methodists.

The play of the Mountaineer line, shattered by graduation, was the outstanding feature of the contest. The highly-touted, veteran Wesleyan backfield was stopped cold by the Gold and Blue forwards, with statistics showing a net loss of six yards for the afternoon. Glenn Carder, sophomore halfback, was the sparkplug of the Mountaineer offense.

WEST VIRGINIA—20 DAVIS-ELKINS—0

Playing as a feature attraction of the Mountain State Forest Festival at Eikins, the West Virginia-D. & E. game was an easy victory for the Mountaineers, but the contest was marred by eligibility protests against certain of the Scarlet Hurricane players.

Again it was the work of a sophomore star that stood out for West Virginia. Kelly Moan's deadly passing arm accounted for two touchdowns, and the "California Catapult" further demonstrated his ability to produce in big time company by completing numerous other aerials.

WEST VIRGINIA—6 PITT—24

Outscored, but not outfought, by the manpower of the University of Pittsburgh, West Virginia turned again from another Pitt defeat—but, for once, a defeat that left plenty of glory for the vanquished team. The Mountaineers fought toe to toe with the Golden Panthers through the first half and were beaten so decisively only because desperate measures were being attempted late in the game in order to try for a score.

The surprising West Virginia line once again proved its worth with Capt. Joe Stydahar playing a masterful game that brought for him acclaim from friend and foe alike. As was expected, the West Virginia passing attack (launched by Moan) was a powerful Mountaineer weapon since it brought the lone touchdown for the invading team.

WEST VIRGINIA—7 GEORGE WASHINGTON—15

The famed Australian boomerang never worked to better advantage for a native of the bush than did West Virginia's passes for an inferior G-W team as the Mountaineers dropped a most unlucky night game in Washington, 15-7. The Colonials made all of their points on West Virginia miscues and without registering a single first down until after all of the scoring was concluded.

With Carder running the ball for great gains, West Virginia reeled off her touchdown early in the first period and seemed headed for another in a general rout when accidents began to happen. Twice George-Washington halfbacks intercepted passes for touchdown sprints of 90 and 60 yards, and an additional safety was scored on a blocked kick against the luckless Gold and Blue.

WEST VIRGINIA—6 TEMPLE—19

Despite the fact that they displayed the best football of any game during the year, the Mountaineers were unable to cope with the Pop Warner brand of football magic and fell 19-6. The game, however, was a personal triumph for Joe Stydahar, brilliant All-America tackle, who played his heart out in a losing cause.

REVIEW

The West Virginia tackling and blocking was vicious and consistently good — as may be witnessed by the impotency of Temple's hero, Dave Smukler — but the alertness of the Owls in capitalizing on several Mountaineer lapses was a determining factor in the victory.

WEST VIRGINIA—20 WASHINGTON & LEE—0

Snapping back into the winning column after three disastrous weeks, Coach Trusty Tallman's proteges humbled the Generals in a rather listless game that "came to" only during the second half. Aided by fine kicking, the Southerners played the Mountaineers to a standstill during the first half but were overcome when the West Virginia team finally snapped together and went to work in earnest.

Three sophomores, Leo Fizer, Dave Isaac, and Moan, were outstanding for the Tallmanites, and piled up the greater part of the 288 yards from scrimmage and 78 yards on passes. As usual, the Mountaineer line played good ball, but not until the second half "rejuvenation."

WEST VIRGINIA—0 DUQUESNE—19

Although a downpour of rain dampened the spirits of the few stragglers who turned out for the Duquesne game, the chief dampening agent was the disappointing play of the Mountaineers. Given only an outside chance against the favored Dukes, the West Virginians were expected, nevertheless, to make a better showing than they did.

The Pittsburgh Irish outcharged their Varsity opponents and otherwise nullified whatever offensive or defensive strength that was impotently offered. The ball carrying of Fizer and the tackling of Stydahar were the only bright spots in an otherwise dreary day.

WEST VIRGINIA—51 WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON—0

Jumping from one extreme to the other, West Virginia rebounded from the listless Duquesne game to give an almost perfect exhibition in winning from W. & J. 51-0. Practically every play and strategy tried by the Mountaineers worked like the proverbial charm, and the defense was uniformly good since the Presidents were able to gain but 17 yards against a total of 251.

Any attempt to enumerate the individual West Virginia stars would be foolhardy since practically every man played a superior brand of ball. However, Fizer and Carder toted the pigskin for a total of 183 yards between them, making an average of almost 10 yards per try for each player.

WEST VIRGINIA—19 LOYOLA—19

In one of the big surprises of the season Loyola University staged a comeback to tie West Virginia 19-19 in a Thanksgiving Day game in New Orleans. The Mountaineers started out with a rush and pushed the Southerners off their feet in the opening minutes, scoring three touchdowns with a 14 yard dash by Carder and passes from Moan to Babe Barna and Fizer.

The intense heat was too much for the Talmannites, however, and Loyola braced with scores in the first, second and last quarters as the Mountaineers wilted. West Virginia threw up a brilliant defense through most of the second half before relinquishing the lead late in the game.

Members of The Squad

JOE STYDAHAR — Captain Joe Stydahar, playing his last year with the West Virginia Squad was a stone wall in the Mountaineer line-up. Playing at tackle all year, Joe was as good on the offensive as he was on the defensive play. Stydahar was again mentioned on the All American, and accepted a position on the All Eastern team that journeyed to California to play in the annual East-West game. Joe has signed to play professional ball next season.

BABE BARNA — Excelling his work of last season, Herbert "Babe" Barna played a consistant game all season at end. His defensive play was much improved over that of last season. Barna will begin his last year of football in the 1936 season.

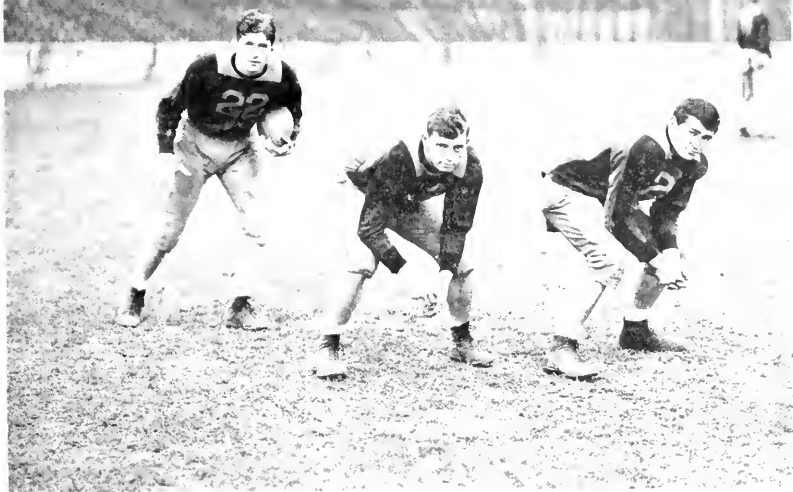

ANGELO ONDER — His specialty being place kicking, Angelo Onder proved to be a great asset to the Mountaineer forward wall this season. Onder's place will be hard to fill next season.

Angelo Onder

Kelly Moan

Leo Fizer

David Isaac

Glenn Carter

"Squint" Phares

GENE HESTER — Gene Hester did a fine job filling the "All American" shoes of Tod Goodwin this season. His fine offensive play was noticeable throughout the season.

JACK GOCKE — Jack Gocke was the triple threat field general of the Mountaineers this season. The red head's timely, and well directed punts kept the West Virginia team out of the danger zones many times.

BOB KYLE — Playing his third year of college football, Bob Kyle was one of the outstanding Juniors on the squad. Being a dependable man, and a fine blocking quarterback, Bob will see much Varsity service next season.

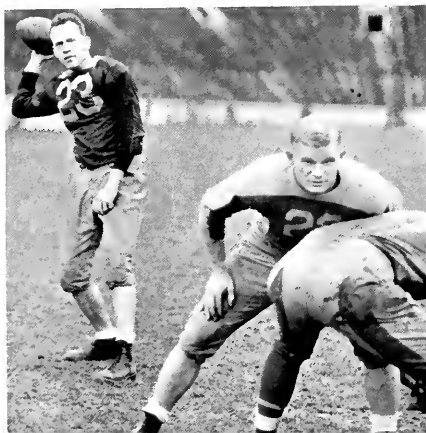

JOE ZALESKI — The veteran Zaleski handled the full back position a great amount of the time this season. Joe is a powerful plunger, and a quick man when in action going through the opponents line.

KELLY MOAN — A triple threat sophomore in the person of Kelly Moan. The California lad was a menace to the opposition. Kelly will, without a doubt, see much service in the next year line-up.

GLENN CARDER — Glenn Carder was the sophomore flash, who as the season progressed proved an important asset to the Mountaineer line-up with his fast broken field running. Carder will probably be called on a great deal next season.

Gene Hester

Jack Gocke

Joe Zaleski

Carl Hall

Olan Hedrick

Fred Buskirk

DAVID ISAAC — Isaac played a speedy game all season, and ought to be a worry to next years opposition. Broken field running was David's specialty for the season.

LEO FIZER — Playing his first year with the West Virginia varsity squad Leo proved that he will step into regular varsity shoes in the Junior and Senior years of his college career. Leo's fast foot work assisted many times in advancing the Mountaineers up the gridiron.

JOE POILEK — Well known for his blocking ability, Joe Poilek, finished up his junior year of football successfully. Joe's weight will be needed next year with the array of light and fast men that will be dominant.

DICK HEATH — Considered one of the fastest men on the squad, Dick Heath was handicapped at the beginning of the season with a leg injury. However, when once again in action Dick showed his old form in the remaining games. The season ended Dick's football career with the Mountaineers.

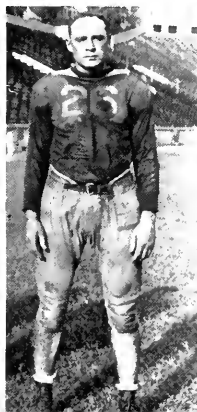

HOSMER CROPP — Hosmer Cropp played his last year with W. V. U. this season as Coach Tallman's filler for the forward wall. Cropp played a consistant game all season.

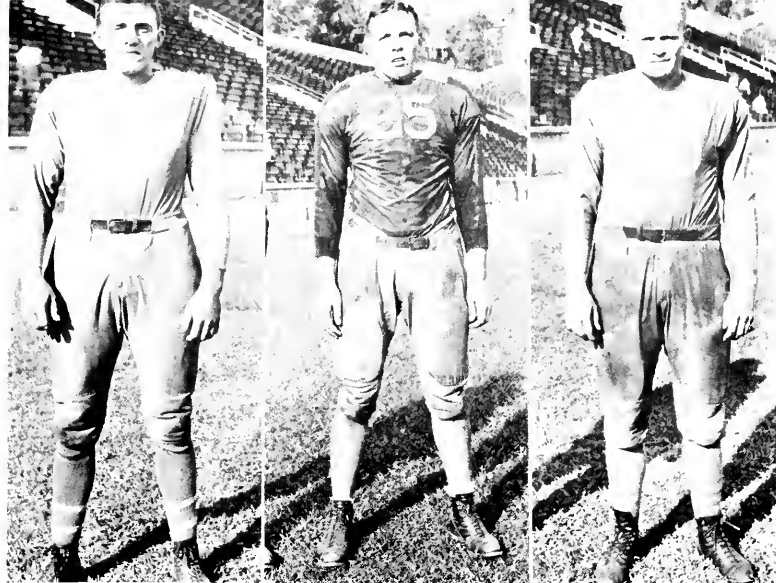

Herbert Barna

William Ingraham

Bob Kyle

Hosmer Cropp

"Moose" Hodges

Richard Heath

FRED BUSKIRK — Fred Buskirk played the part of the "Man Mountain" in the West Virginia line. There were very few opposing line that Fred could not crash through. His defensive play was excellent

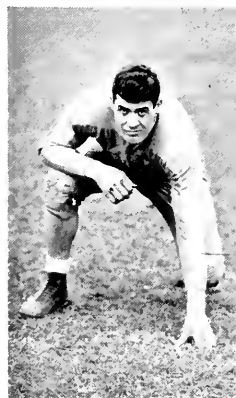

DAVID VULCAN — Quiet, sober, David Vulcan completed his first year of varsity football with a record that will probably put him in the regular varsity ranks next season.

JOHN "SQUINT" PHARES — Heralded last year for his ability to change pace, "Squint" Phares added fine qualities of passing and blocking. Two more years of varsity ball are in store for this shifty half-back.

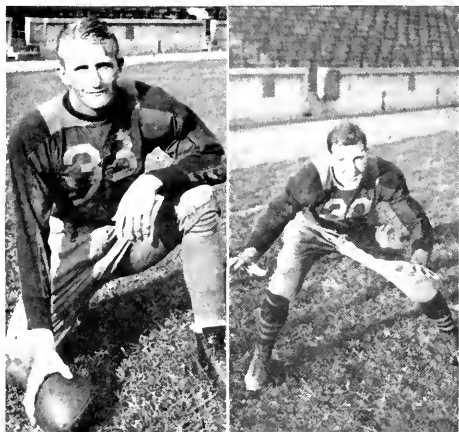

CARL HALL — Handicapped by a nose injury last season, Carl Hall came back to earn a regular varsity position this year. His fine work on the line was an appropriate finish to his college football career.

ROBERT NEILSON — Hailing with Kelly Moan from California the lanky Bob Neilson was a stout wedge in the West Virginia line. From his work last year Bob has probably earned a regular position in the center of the Mountaineer line.

OLAN HEDRICK — In his first year of varsity ball, Olan became a regular center in the West Virginia line-up. In the remaining two years of Hendricks career much can be expected from him.

BASKETBALL

A TEAM that won sixteen of its twenty-four scheduled games; a team that, in the personage of Forward Jack Gocke, gained individual high-scoring honors of the Eastern Intercollegiate conference; a team that beat both Duquesne and Pitt — thus was West Virginia's 1935-36 basketball troupe.

Despite the capable direction which Coach Marshall "Sleepy" Glenn gave to equally capable players, a jinx which hovered over the team in the way of "off" nights blanketed the Gold and Blue colors in third place E. I. C. standing at the termination of the season. That these off nights were responsible for heart-breaking conference defeats is evidenced by at least one victory of all the dual conference tilts.

With only two first-string men graduating — Al Colebank and Andy Mestrovic — West Virginia promises to renew the race next year with high hope of bringing back the title crown.

Passing in review John Lee "Squint" Phares, guard, veteran of two years and a mainstay in the Mountaineer cage attack during the 1935-36 season. "Squint", a former all-state basketballer with Elkins high school, has yet another year to display that fast cut under the basket, the flashy "hidden ball" pass, and other court maneuvers that have contributed to his brilliant career.

"The fastest center West Virginia has had in years." Thus sports critics appraise Herbert "Babe" Barna, the cog about which the varsity quintet clicked out this year's season.

That steady, consistent ball that Albert "Albie" Colebank has been playing for the Gold and Blue during the last three court seasons will terminate this year. West Virginia will miss him next year and the announcer at the Field House will have to think twice or he will be forced from habit to repeat that cry of: "Colebank scores a long one."

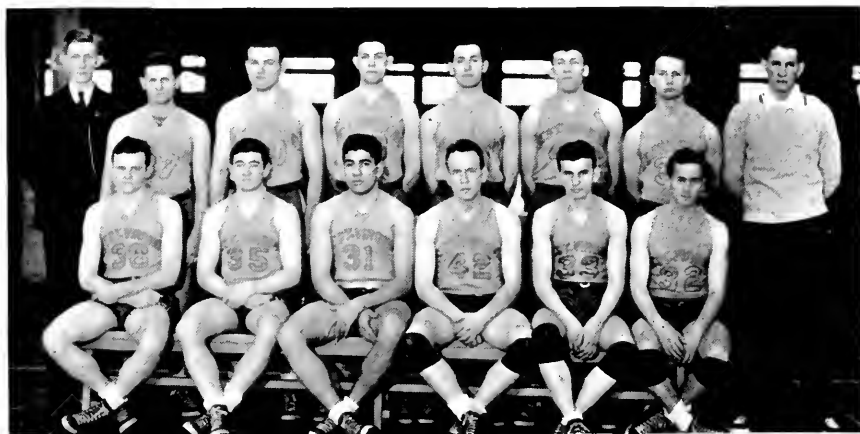

Ordeals accompanying a semester's work in the College of Law failed to separate Andrew "Andy" Mestrovic from the squad this year, his last as a Gold and Blue warrior. Without doubt the most brilliant passer on the team, "Andy" accounted for many of the "snow birds" completed by his teammates in addition to garnishing his own record with a goodly number of scores.

EASTERN Intercollegiate Conference champions for the fourth consecutive time; possessor of one National Collegiate Athletic association title and runner-up for another; official recognition as fourth best collegiate team in the United States; recipient of three bids to Olympic tryouts — that's all Coach Eddie Vacheresse could worm out of a first-string boxing lineup which, but for two exceptions, was composed entirely of sophomores.

Coach Vacheresse (and here the satire ends) prepared to launch the 1935-36 season surrounded by an impenetrable wall of pessimism. He ended it with an impenetrable wall of optimism. Next year West Virginia's ring team will be the same that flouted gloves during the past season, one that will renew a race against the nation's greatest collegiate boxing entries from a vantage point already gained. What will those Mountaineers leather-pushers do?

When the flurry of gloves had ceased at the National Collegiate Athletic association tournament March 28 at Charlottesville, Va., Mickey Bruto had captured first honors in the 115-pound class and Denver "Red" Welch had reached the finals only to be eeked out of the title by a narrow margin gained by Fadner, of Wisconsin. Both are entering the Olympic tryouts at Chicago in May, accompanied by Ashby Dickerson.

In the Eastern Intercollegiate conference finals at Pittsburgh, April 3 and 4, the Gold and Blue fared even better. Not only did Welch repossess his 125-pound title — three sophomores — Sam Littlepage in the 155-pound class, Kelley "Killer" Moan in the 175, and Ashby Dickerson, unlimited — had won in their respective weight classes, and by so doing had given number one team honors to the Mountaineer aggregation.

During the regular season two ties — that with Pitt and that with Duke (a team one can nonchalantly refer to as second in national collegiate standings) — marred an undefeated and untied record. But the decision at Pitt which brought about only a tying score was so obviously partial to Panther boxers that this tie can be forgotten. One Pittsburgh columnist immediately after the Pitt fracas even asserted:

"I don't see how, with the referee that they had, the Mountaineers could even tie the local boys at the Pitt stadium. It was robbery!"

"I'm right much interested in the way this Louis McIntire (a 145-pounder from Parkersburg who worked this season as a freshman) has showed up. He'll be a mighty good man to have with us next year," Coach Vacheresse declared when questioned about possibilities for 1936-37. ITS OFFENSE led by slugging Bemus Hall, its defense, by Pitcher Jack Gocke, the 1936 varsity baseball team in the first home game launched a diamond campaign that from all appearances should pan out successful.

Coach Ira "Rat" Rodgers was working the following men in the early stages of the season; pitchers, Gocke, Morgan, Rubrecht; catchers, Poileck, Cropp; first base, Baran; second, Carder; third, Nekoranic; shortstop, Scalli; left field, Hall; right field, Jackson; center field, Onder. McCue and Syman saw service occasionally at infield posts.

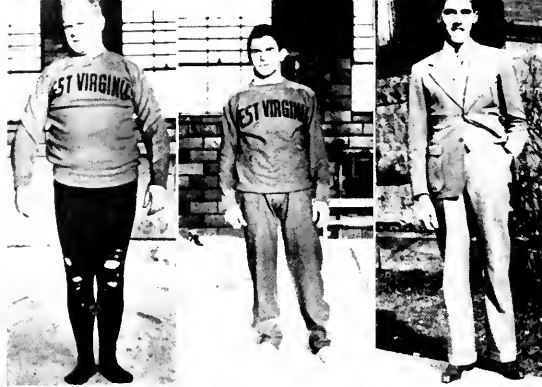

Of the thirty-eight candidates to turn out at Commencement Hall, March 21, for the first practice, Hall in late April was leading the pack with a batting average well over 600. Scores at that date included 9-4 and 6-0 losses to Penn State and 21-4 and 14-13 victories over Fairmont State Teachers college.

Last year's nine completed an 18-game schedule equally balanced with nine victories and nine losses. The scores:

HAIL the undefeated champions — Mountaineer wrestling men of might.

Through a seven-match schedule Coach Albert "Whitey" Gwynne's charges emerged with a record free from defeats or ties. Two members of the squad — Busquets and Lancaster — went undefeated throughout the season.

This is Coach Gwynne's first team of champions and the first undefeated mat aggregation West Virginia has had in many years.

The most youthful coach of varsity sports, Gwynne will lose only three of his 1935-36 squad via the graduation route. They are Salvador "Silent" Busquets, Captain Charles Sites and Bob Glass. Veterans who will bolster the strength of next year's squad are King, Hess, Kyle, Moreland, and Hodges.

WHEN COACH ART SMITH sounded the call of assembly for varsity men this season only eighteen faithful followers responded, nine of whom are veterans from last year's campaign. Occupying a stellar role in the 1936 lineup is Barney Gedwilas, contender for the role of American Collegiate Olympic entry.

Coach Art Smith's charges inaugurated the 1936 track season May 2 with an 84-51 defeat to Penn State at State College, Pa. Two more meets — the first with Pitt, May 15; and the second, with Temple, May 30 — are listed on this season's schedule. Both are being held in Morgantown.

West Virginia will lose only three members of the track team via the graduation route this year. They are Phil Baer, veteran polevaulter, Jene Hester, shotput and high-jump artist, and Sam Meder, dash and broadjump man. Veteran members of the squad who will take to the cinders again next year are: Harry Hogue, dash; Kenneth Risky, hurdles; Barney Gedwilas, mile and two-mile runs; Dave Isaac, dashes and broad jump; and Kelley Moan, high jump, discus and javelin.

In a preliminary to the opening of the official season last year West Virginia got off to a flying start by copping all honors for collegiate events at the Gazzette Relays, April 28 at Charleston.

May 4 proved to be the date for the realization of optimistic hopes for and by the track squad. It was on this date last year that the Mountaineer cindermen swamped the Yellow-jackets of Waynesburg 93 1 3 to 29 2 3.

When on May 5 the team took the high road to Pittsburgh to meet the Pitt Panthers, the optimism also took to the road. The trackmen returned that evening. Optimism remained in Pennsylvania's Smoky City. The score: Pitt, 73; West Virginia, 52.

Next, on May 11, the Temple Owls blinked off a 73-53 victory over the Gold and Blue tracksters at Philadelphia. Then, on May 18, as the final curtain fell on the season, the Mountaineers recuperated and blasted the Georgetown Hoyas into a flashy 100 to 26 defeat.

Of the four meets for last season West Virginia had won two and lost two.

A budget limited to $700 by the University Athletic Committee has proved a serious handicap to the 1936 squad. In order to comply with its restrictions, it was imperative that the number of meets be decreased. Next year we hope to see Coach Smith more adequately financed for the pit and cinder sport.

T E N N I S

THE MOUNTAINEER sports team that has probably done the most for West Virginia for so small a reward is Dave Jacob's tennis troupe. Allowed only thirty dollars as the season's subsidy, this athletic squad has carried on this year with an impetus not to be outdone by more-generous financed sports.

Because the courts were badly in need of repairs, the thirty candidates for the squad who reported before Easter holidays for the initial practice, were forced to perform their racquet slinging inside the Field House. Volunteers owning cars have been enlisted to provide a mode of transportation to eight out-of-town matches.

Speculation as to what the 1936 season holds in store for the University courtmen appeared rife when the squad motored to Fairmont April 25 to take the scalps of the Fairmont State Teachers college warriors 7 to 2 and repeating the performance May 2 at Buckhannon when the Wesleyan tennis team was snowed under 4-1 before the figurative snow changed to rain.

Coach Jacob's regulars this year included only two veterans who will graduate. They are Captain William "Bill" Schaeffer and Huck Ruble. Other members of the squad to have seen service in previous years are Kenley Thorne, Scott Camp, Sam Littlepage, and John Hesse. In addition, several promising aspirants reported for court duty this year. Among the latter group are Howard Klebe, Berk Lynch, Paul Tennant, Charles Kidd, and J. R. Hess.

To follow on this season's schedule are the following matches: George Washington University, Washington, D. C. — May 14; Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. — May 15; Cumberland Tennis Club, Cumberland, Md. — May 16; Fairmont State Teachers College, Fairmont — May 21; Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa. — May 23; West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon — May 26; Clarksburg Country Club, Clarksburg — May 30; West Virginia Alumni, Morgantown — June 8.

GOLF TEAM

THIS YEAR in arranging the golf team schedule it was found that several of our old opponents were not sponsoring teams. As a result this year's schedule includes two matches with Wash.-Jeff., Carnegie Tech, and Waynesburg. In addition to these pre-season matches will be played with the Clarksburg Country Club, the Fairmont Country Club, and the Preston County Country Club.

The team will be minus the services of stellar captain Sam Aspinall and Joe Grow. However with Kirk Jackson assuming the role of captain, along with Jimmy Loar, Braxton Davenport, Candidates Tommy Graham, Homer (Horace) Sharpenberg, and others the prospects for the season look mighty bright.

Last year matches were played with Carnegie Tech, Duquesne, Wash.-Jeff., Clarksburg, Fairmont, and Kingwoo. With this schedule the team recorded a split season, winning half their matches and losing half their matches.

RIFLE TEAM

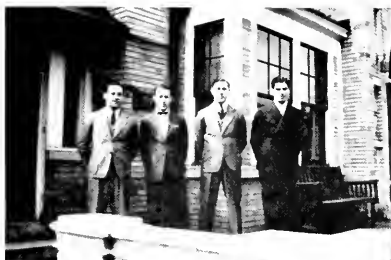

MOUNTAINEER RIFLEMEN, paced by Captain Dwight Cruikshank, emerged from a 48-game schedule of matches with twenty-seven victorious encounters as compared with twenty-one lost.

From the dark confines of the Stadium range, the commands and suggestions of Lieut. Lawrence M. Wilson, coach, coupled with the piercing crack of the University barrell-gazers were heard during the 1935-36 season. Included within the ranks of the 40-strong groups were the following let-termen:

D. P. Cruikshank, captain
D. G. Sterling
G. R. Ruck
J. A. Woodburn

J. L. Sutton
R. W. McGlothlin
J. W. Williamson

Major W. L. Smith, instructor in the local Reserve Officers' Training Corps, served as executive in charge of the range. C. A. Bailey managed the team.

I N T R A M U R A L

A SPORTS PROGRAM twelve-fold in circumference and more than a thousand fold in contestants began its eighth annual existence at West Virginia University this year. It was the schedule of intramural athletics under the direction of Harry A. Samuels.

The first of the twelve events, speedball, rolled to a conclusion this fall with Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity laying claim to the trophy cup. Following in chronological order of sports, the winners of other events were: cross-country, Tau Kappa Epsilon; handball, Phi Kappa Tau; foul throwing, Delta Tau Delta; basketball, Delta Tau Delta; bowling, Beta Theta Pi; indoor track, Kappa Sigma; relays, Pi Lambda Phi; volley ball, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Spring events include outdoor track, horseshoes and softball.

As a reward for victorious service throughout the year, two special trophies are presented through the auspices of the intramural department. The A. G. Spalding company, Pittsburgh, offers one to the fraternity scoring the highest number of points on the all-year competition for fraternities. The Sport Shop, of Clarksburg, offers another to the fraternity scoring the second highest number. Both become the permanent possession of the organization winning them once.

In addition, an intramural cup is offered to the winner of each sport.

Points for the all-year competition are apportioned as follows:

| Tournaments | Points | | |
|---------------------------------|----------|------------|--------|
| | Entrance | Additional | Winner |
| Major Sports | | | |
| Baseball, Basketball, Speedball | 50 | 100 | 150 |
| Intermediate Sports | | | |
| Wrestling | 40 | 60 | 100 |
| Volley Ball | 30 | 70 | 100 |
| Minor Sports | | | |
| Handball, Horseshoes | 25 | 50 | 75 |
| Major Sports | | | |
| Outdoor Track, Indoor Track | 30 | 70 | 100 |
| Intermediate Sports | | | |
| Foul Throwing, Indoor Relay | 20 | 30 | 50 |
| Minor Sports | | | |
| Cross-Country, Bowling, Tennis | 25 | 50 | 75 |

To qualify for "entrance points" in any sport a fraternity must be represented by at least the minimum number of contestants required for that sport and not forfeit any games on their schedule. For each game or contest forfeited the same number of points is deducted from "entrance points" as a team would have received had it won the game or contest. The "additional points" are awarded on the basis of the number of games or points won in comparison to the number won by the championship team, which received the maximum number of additional points.

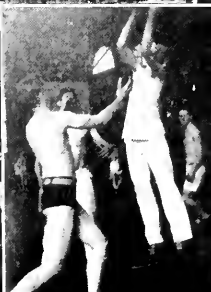

As a part of their routine line of duty, Mr. Samue's and his corps of student intramural managers keep statistics of interfraternity athletic activities from year to year. According to this file, fraternity all-year standings for the years 1934-35, 1933-34, and 1932-33 were:

| | 1934-35 | 1933-34 | 1932-33 |
|-----------------------|---------|---------|---------|
| 1. Kappa Sigma | 915 | 2-840 | 1-916 |
| 2. Phi Sigma Kappa | 896 | 3-809 | 8-652 |
| 3. Phi Delta Theta | 811 | 9-591 | 6-675 |
| 4. Sigma Nu | 780 | 5-745 | 2-873 |
| 5. Pi Kappa Alpha | 724 | 1-912 | 4-771 |
| 6. Phi Kappa Psi | 711 | 10-567 | 16-355 |
| 7. Pi Lambda Phi | 699 | 4-778 | 10-590 |
| 8. Tau Kappa Epsilon | 689 | 6-634 | 5-692 |
| 9. Phi Kappa Sigma | 672 | 11-559 | 12-503 |
| 10. Phi Sigma Delta | 509 | 17-348 | 11-534 |
| 11. Kappa Alpha | 508 | 8-616 | 3-855 |
| 12. Sigma Phi Epsilon | 505 | 19-309 | 19-232 |
| 13. Delta Tau Delta | 488 | 13-424 | 14-396 |
| 14. Beta Theta Pi | 486 | 18-329 | 17-275 |
| 15. Phi Kappa Tau | 450 | 16-353 | 15-366 |
| 16. Phi Alpha | 449 | 12-518 | 7-665 |
| 17. Sigma Chi | 449 | 14-420 | 13-418 |
| 18. Pi Kappa Phi | 401 | 15-356 | 20-210 |
| 19. Theta Chi | 320 | 7-624 | 9-602 |
| 20. Alpha Sigma Phi | 166 | 21-33 | 18-275 |
| 21. Alpha Phi Delta | 152 | 20-131 | |

Conjointly with the interfraternity athletics sponsorship, the intramural department affords competition for independent teams in each of the twelve sports.

This past season saw the abolition of one sport formerly included in the intramural program. This was fall tennis, which could not be provided because of ill-kept courts.

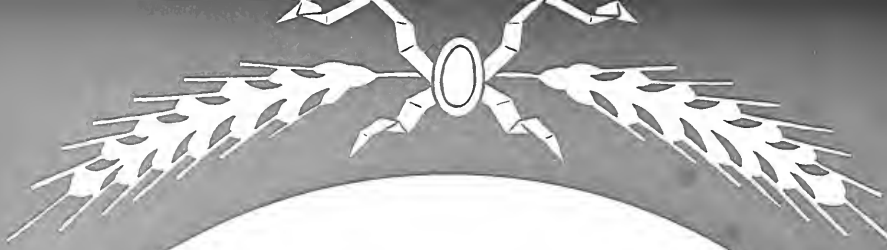

Chester A. Kifer, Phi Kappa Sigma, was the only man to enter all thirteen sports during the year 1934-35. Hiram A. Carpenter, Sigma Nu, competed in twelve. There were 1017 men who participated in intramural activities last year.

The 1936 Monticola PRESENTS

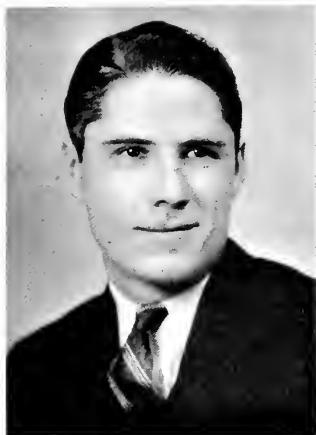

Guy O. Farmer

GUY O. FARMER, honor law student of West Virginia was selected as the Rhodes candidate from this district for the year 1936. He is the second West Virginian to be so honored since 1934 when Charles Sleeth was awarded the scholarship.

Farmer exemplifies the typical Rhodes scholar. An "A" student since his matriculation into West Virginia as a freshman in 1930, has arisen to the apex of accomplishment in the esteem of fellow students. Last year Farmer was elected president of the Law School, acclaimed perhaps the highest honor on the campus.

Rhodes scholarships are awarded on basis of scholarship and literary attainments; qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, kindliness, unselfishness and fellowship, exhibition of moral force and character, and physical vigor. That Guy Farmer has qualified to successfully pass all of these requirements is indeed a feat in itself.

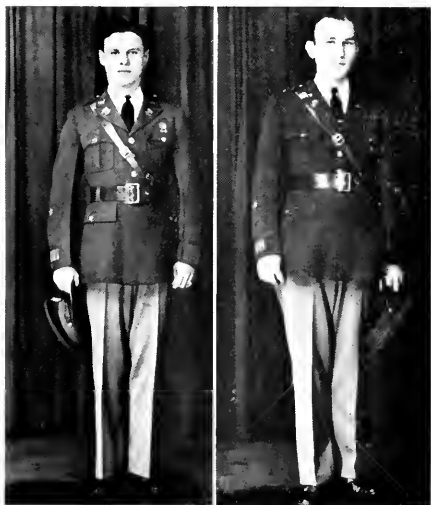

West Virginia University salutes him!

GUY O. FARMER

FRANK SHINE

FELIX A. ESPADA

FELIX A. ESPADA, San Juan, Porto Rico, and Frank Shine, Cassville, West Virginia, were selected from West Virginia University by the United States Marine Corps as honor military students, to receive a year's training in the Marine Corps followed by subsequent commissions as lieutenants.

Chosen on scholarship and military basis, these two men will leave for Philadelphia this month to undergo a training period and cruise with the United States Navy. Both were captains in the University Cadet Corps during the past year.

In 1934-35, Harold Walker and John Easley were chosen from West Virginia in the same capacity.

SPHINX, the Senior Men's Honorary, was established at West Virginia University in 1908. Sphinx Societies are located at Yale, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Ohio State, Washington and Jefferson and other Universities. Members are selected on a basis of leadership in and loyalty to their university and the roll includes both fraternity and independent students, without regard to race, creed or religion. The purpose of Sphinx is two fold: to establish and maintain worthwhile traditions and to render all possible service to the Freshman class. The activities of Sphinx extend throughout the entire year, beginning with Freshman Week, of which the Emperor of Sphinx is ex-officio chairman and all members of the Society serve as official guides. At that time Freshman Handbooks are distributed gratuitously to all members of the first year class. This is followed by a weekly guidance program which extends throughout the entire first semester.

Annually, Sphinx is the sponsor of the traditional Homecoming Week, with its gala parades, house decorations, dances and other festivities in honor of returning Alumni. The Society is the donor of trophies to the winners of the various events.

Sphinx inaugurated and holds an Interfraternity Sing. This is a yearly event at the close of which a Sphinx award is made to the winner. The Society also cooperates in the traditional Link Day ceremonies each May.

This year members of Sphinx have been accorded the honor of being selected as official marshalls and guides for all University functions.

The West Virginia University's Men's Glee Club was reorganized in 1934, when Professor Frank Cuthbert became Director of the School of Music. Since that time the Glee Club has taken a very active part in the program of the University. During the past year, in addition to appearances on the campus, two out of town concerts were given; and the Club was heard through the broadcasting facilities of the KDKA Station at Pittsburgh, Pa., and WMMN Station at Fairmont, W. Va.

Due to their successful season this year plans have been made for an extended trip throughout the State for the 1936-37 season; and also local concerts with a few broadcasts scattered through the year to balance the program.

In behalf of the members of the Glee Club a vote of thanks is extended their leader, Director Frank Cuthbert.

American Institute Electrical Engineers

THIS GROUP is a student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, of which membership is open only to Junior and Senior Engineers.

The object of the organization is to create enthusiasm and develop familiarity with, to exchange ideas upon, and discuss those subjects which pertain to engineering and which will be to our mutual improvement in this occupation.

The outstanding activities during the year were: the meeting of District No. 2 section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers at State College, Pa.; the annual conference of Counselors and Student Branch Members held at Pittsburgh, Pa.; and the bi-annual engineers show.

MORTAR BOARD

Founded at University of Syracuse, 1918
Laurel Chapter established at West Virginia University, 1925

THE PURPOSE of Laurel Chapter of Mortar Board is to encourage and recognize leadership in student activities among women of the University. In the spring of each year such Junior women as have become eligible by activities in student affairs are chosen to membership. The organization strives to promote movements for the best interests of the State and for student life at West Virginia University.

Li-Toon-Awa

The officers of Li-toon-awa are: Pres., Kathryn Schaffer; Vice President, Ruth Roberts; Secretary, Billie Datson; Treasurer, Ann Dudley, and Reporter, Sarah Bushlong. Their aim is to be helpful and serve as a group on the campus. They stand steady at all times. Their main purpose is to help freshmen girls adapt themselves to the University life.

To be a member of Li-toon-awa a girl is judged on these outstanding points: personal character, personality, scholarship, extra curricular activities, and leadership ability.

Li-toon-awa was founded at West Virginia University in 1927. The name in Indian language means "friendship". The members are pledged during the annual Link Day ceremonies held on the Circle during May. Initiation is held at a latter date.

Y. W. C. A.

THE OBJECT of the Young Woman's Christian Association of West Virginia University is to unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. Members wish to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

The Y. W. C. A. meetings are opened by a devotional service after which the meetings of the various interest groups are held. Students and faculty members are often the speakers in the groups. The drama group presented "Why the Chimes Rang", a delightful Christmas play, at the usual Christmas service. An art class was conducted by one of Morgantown's leading artists. The gift shop was open from Thanksgiving until the beginning of the Christmas holidays and due to the cooperation and assistance of all the students it was a success.

The Mardi Gras is to be the crowning event in the program for the year. It will probably be a different type of entertainment than formerly and many plans are being made for it.

One of the projects for the year was the addition to our library. Several of the popular magazines were subscribed to and some new books were purchased. By gradually increasing the library we hope that soon a large and fine collection will develop.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

THE HOME ECONOMICS SCHOOL, which is in connection with the College of Agriculture, organized a Home Economics Club nine years ago.

The major purposes of the club are to stimulate interest, develop leadership, and cooperation in the work of the college.

Any girl registered as a Home Economics major is eligible to join.

At the beginning of each year, the club sponsors a membership drive at the end of which a prize is given to the class having the most members.

It is the aim of the club to hold at least one major meeting of interest each month in either Oglebay or Elizabeth Moore Halls. At least one of these meetings is devoted to charity work. Also one meeting during the year is taken up with a Farm and Home Week Project.

Alpha Epsilon Delta

The West Virginia Alpha chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta is a part of a national honorary organization for the recognition of outstanding pre-medical students. The members are elected to the group on the basis of scholarship, character, ability and personality.

The chapter at West Virginia University has sponsored such activities that will further medical interest for the entire pre-medical division of the University. These projects have been in the form of Forum Dinners, Pre-Med Conferences, and Medical Movies.

The chapter awards as a stimulant for scholarship a "Medical Dictionary" to be given to the pre-medical student making the highest average in scientific work during his or her freshman year.

Wesley Foundation

WESLEY FOUNDATION at West Virginia University is religious. Its objectives might be defined in terms of the conservation of values, the achievement of good character, and the development of Christian personality.

Probably the most significant attribute recognizable in the Wesley Foundation group is its spirit of friendliness, its warmth of fellowship. This sense of at-one-ness and "belonging" in a wholesome social group is of incalculable worth in the conservation of that which is of value in a student's life.

The Wesley Foundation program is definitely church centered. Each Sunday morning the students worship in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, the church nearest the campus, and the church that furnishes the rooms and other facilities needed in carrying on our program.

A student staff of twelve, working in cooperation with the University Pastor, is in full charge of the work of the Wesley Foundation.

THE MOUNTAINEER WEEK TEAM, consisting of fourteen University men, tour the high schools of West Virginia every year. These men are selected and coached by Dr. Richard Aspinall, director of the University Extension Division.

The purpose of this group is to reflect college life to high school students, and to tell high school students what we have at West Virginia University. Members of the team are selected on a basis of speaking ability, campus activities, and manner of presentation.

Delta Nu Tau

DELTA NU TAU is an honorary Pre-Legal fraternity founded at West Virginia University in 1932. Its purpose is to bring the members of the pre-legal course in closer contact with the law school. To be eligible for membership, it is necessary to have a "B" average for two semesters of pre-law work.

The Athenaeum

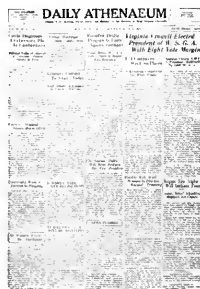

THE FIRST COPY of the Athenaeum, West Virginia University student newspaper, was published in September, 1887, with W. S. Grant Pitzer as the first editor. The paper was to be published every two weeks and the printing was done by Julian Fleming, proprietor of the New Dominion Printing House.

In order to "promote the literary state of the students; to narrate college events; to keep alumni interested in their alma mater, and to express the life growth and attainments of the University", C. W. Waddell and A. W. Smith took over the editorship in 1899, publishing the paper every first and third Saturday of each month.

With the issue of September 1901, the Athenaeum was changed into a weekly paper, "devoted chiefly to the local news of the University and personal items about the students, friends and teachers," the paper became a semi-weekly publication in 1921, appearing every Tuesday and Friday and in 1923 became a tri-weekly.

In March 1926, at a mass meeting the student body voted in favor of an increase in fees to cover the cost of publishing the paper five times a week but it was not until 1933 that the Daily Athenaeum was an actuality. It now appears in tabloid form every morning except Sunday and Monday.

The first editor-in-chief of the Daily Athenaeum was Harry J. Marker; Robert Shaffer was managing editor and Wm. Smith, business manager.

Student Directory

THIS YEAR'S Directory was the sixteenth consecutive issue of this publication. The book contains the name, local address and telephone number, home address fraternity or sorority and classification of every student in the University, as well as the name, address, telephone number and department of each member of the faculty.

Also there is listed such additional information as fraternity and sorority addresses and telephone numbers, fraternity and sorority presidents, a list of campus leaders, a list of honorary organizations, and the University and social calendars.

The editor for this year's Directory was C. A. Peairs, Jr.; John Abbott was business manager. It was under the general supervision of an advisory committee composed of Dean Harry E. Stone and Professor C. P. Boomsliter.

Members of the business staff were Kenneth Fowler, Paul S. Tennant, Wentworth S. Morris, Carl M. Jacobson, Mary L. Abbott, and Daniel W. Allen.

Our Commandant

MAJOR GEOFFREY P. BALDWIN

THIS COMMENCEMENT marks the end of our actual contact with Major Geoffrey P. Baldwin, respected Commandant of the University Cadet Corps during the past four years.

Always a true gentleman and officer, Major Baldwin commanded the respect of the entire student body of the University.

All who came in contact with him during his stay here were greatly benefitted in many respects. It is indeed with reluctance that we bid him adieu.

FEATURES

AN OUTSTANDING FEATURE
OF COLLEGE LIFE IS THE SOCIAL
SIDE OF IT. EACH YEAR EIGHT OF THE
MOST BEAUTIFUL CO-EDS ARE SELECTED
AS MONTICOLA BEAUTIES, WITH THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL HOLDING THE TITLE OF MISS
WEST VIRGINIA. FOR ABOUT THIRTEEN YEARS THE SELECTION FOR THIS HONOR HAS BEEN CARRIED ON
BY THE YEARBOOK STAFF. THESE GIRLS ARE UNDOUBT-EDLY THE LEADERS IN THE UNIVERSITY SOCIAL LIFE AND
ARE POPULAR EXAMPLES OF WEST VIRGINIA PULCHRI-TUDE. AN ADDED FEATURE IS THE SELECTION OF THE JUNIOR PROM QUEEN, WHICH FOR YEARS HAS BEEN
AN OUTSTANDING SOCIAL EVENT. IN THIS SECTION WILL BE FOUND ACCOUNTS, TAKEN FROM MANY
SOURCES, DESCRIBING THE SOCIAL ACTIVITIES
OF OUR ALUMNI YEARS AGO. HOWEVER,
NO YEARBOOK WOULD BE COMPLETE
WITHOUT INFORMAL SNAPSHOTS
OF MANY VARIED
HAPPENINGS.

Football Dance — Dec. 8, 1896

The social event of the season was given in honor of the football team last Friday December, 14. This enterprise was initiated and carried out by the ladies of the town for the benefit of our team. The dance was held in the gymnasium which was prettily and uniquely decorated. The stars and stripes of old glory mingled fraternally with the old gold and blue while here and there was a football figure calculated to revive in the minds of our champions of the gridiron, memories of hard fought battles and well earned victories. About forty couples were present including the elite of our own little city as well as strangers from McKeesport, Uniontown and Fairmont. The goddess of mirth and good cheer held undisputed sway and when the Orchestra started its sweet strains out through the great hall and away into the silent night without, every foot beat a rhythm and all anxiously awaited the command;

"On with the dance,

Let joy be unconfined".

When this command was given away swept the couples; — beauty and chivalry — across the polished planks keeping sinuous time to the soft strains.

A dream it must have been for soon it seemed 'twas past and the time for refreshments was at hand. These were served about one P. M. Such a feast as it was. 'T would have tempted the most abstemious and have proved fatal to the gourmand. It was an excellent recommendation for the caterers and eminently satisfactory to the Epicureans.

After supper the dance was again on and for two hours more the Connellsville band which furnished music for the occasion, delighted the dancers with splendid waltzes, two-steps and lancers.

There were twenty dances on the program and many extras were interpolated. The Reception Committee consisted of Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Grant, and Mrs. Chrisman, who right royally greeted the guests.

Three o'clock the hour for closing came all too soon and those who for hours had tripped it merrily, went home to dream of faces fair and the giddy mazes of the dance.

Final Ball — July 28, 1901

The Commencement Ball, on Thursday night June 20, was decidedly the most brilliant social event of the year. The affair was under the management of the officers of the Cadet Corps, and was planned and carried through in a way that left nothing to be desired. They have the thanks and congratulations of all present.

The large Biological Hall in the University Building was handsomely decorated. Hundreds of bright sabres and polished scabbards decorated the walls and hung in rows from the ceiling. Large shields in gold and blue, displaying University emblems and insignia greeted the eye at every turn. American flags and Cadet Corps colors were artistically draped over stacked muskets and old mortars. Cadets in uniform were stationed here and there to look after the comfort and convenience of the guests. Stacked palms almost entirely concealed the orchestra which furnished excellent music.

At nine o'clock the guests began to fill the halls and corridors leading to the ballroom, and on the first stroke of ten the thrilling note of the bugle sounding the assembly announced the opening waltz.

The program consisted of twenty-five regular dances, waltz and two-step alternating, and six extras. Nearly all the dances were encored, and the orchestra usually responded.

At twelve o'clock, the mess call was sounded, and the dancers retired to Commencement Hall, where a substantial lunch awaited them. At four o'clock A. M. the last notes of "Home Sweet Home" breathed out upon the morning air, and a few minutes afterward, the roll of cabs announced to many disturbed slumberers that the Commencement Ball of 1901 was over.

More than one hundred and fifty guests were present including many out of town visitors and alumni. A description of the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies or even a list of those present would too ambitious an undertaking to attempt.

Leap Year Dance, A Brilliant Affair — Jan. 29, 1908

The Leap Year dance given by the co-eds in the Armory last Saturday night was one of the big social events of the season. The girls had charge of a regular Armory dance and they carried it out in fine style. A great many of the young ladies called for their guests and escorted them to the ballroom, managing the minutest detail in the role of escort. And the men were very gracious with their ladylike manners, too.

The program was made up of sixteen regular and six extra dances. Mestrezat's orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. Ice and wafers were served between dances.

The dance was a success in every way, especially in respect to the large number of couples present. The floor was well filled for every dance. Several guests were present from out of town. About forty couples attended. The chaperons were Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Simpson, and Mrs. McVicker.

May 13, 1908

One of the most enjoyable informal dances of the season was the fourth dance given by the Pan-Hellenic Committee on Thursday evening May 7. The evening was very cool and everybody enjoyed the whole evening's pleasure without the least discomfort. Perhaps more new faces were seen at this dance than any other of the series. Many persons from out of town were present. A new feature of the entertainment was the moonlight dances, which filled up the four extras. A large jolly moon beamed down from one end of the hall, and in the ceiling were placed four bright stars. The effect was very soothing and harmonized perfectly with soft music from the balcony.

Among the guests of the evening were, Mrs. Knowlton, Mrs. Nern, Mrs. Huggins, Miss Emily Hall of Keyser, Misses Laura and Melissa Williams of Fairmont.

The patronesses were, Mrs. Gilbert Miller, Mrs. Ed. McNeill, Mrs. Zevely and Mrs. E. M. Grant.

Woman's Hall Scene of Gay Festivities, March 27, 1915

Mock Marriage pulled off by inmates who represented all characters

The parlors of Woman's Hall were the scene of a beautifully appointed wedding on last Saturday evening, the principals being Miss Arabella Hasthegold, the bride and Lord Helpus, the groom. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the colors were pink, blue and lavender predominating. An aisle extending the length of the rooms was formed by the white ribbons held by pages. The bride was most becomingly attired in white lingerie gown en train, with lace veil held in place by handsome circles of brilliants, the gifts of the groom. Her bouquet was made up of green lettuce leaves with a shower of radishes.

Promptly at eight o'clock the wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Susan Moore. Attending the bridal couple were best man, maid of honor, bridesmaids, ushers and flower girls. The bride, on the arm of her father, the venerable Mr. Hasthegold, was met at the altar by the stalwart groom. A most impressive service was read by the officiating minister, the Rev. Mr. Grabafee. Following the ceremony a ball was given in honor of the newlyweds. An elaborate course luncheon of ice cream cones and candy kisses was served. Early Monday morning the happy couple departed for eight o'clock classes.

In everyday life the bride is Jeanne Marsteller; the groom, Beatrice Hall; the maid of honor, Ruby Florence; the best man, Jeannette Booher; the ushers, Frances Williams and Betty Swisher, bridesmaids, Helen Judge and Myra Nefflin, flower girls, Iva Welsh, Kathleen Childers, Edith Bush and Ethel Hoult. The brides father and mother, Anna Elliott and Irene Minear, the officiating clergyman, Lou Lanham. Alma Bachman sang the ceremony.

Reception to Regents and Faculty

One of the most notable social events of the year was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Waitman T. Barbe to the Regents and Faculty of the University at the Hotel Peabody on Friday evening June the fourteenth. From nine o'clock until twelve, the handsomely decorated parlors of the hotel were filled with guests — nearly three hundred being present. Mr. and Mrs. Barbe are particularly successful in entertaining, but their guests have never enjoyed a more delightful evening than that of June 14.

Annual Military Ball Given by Cadet Officers, Mar, 1, 1905

At just 1:45 a. m. on last Thursday morning the greatest social event of this college year ended. The Annual Military Ball given by the Officers of the West Virginia University Corps of Cadets on the evening of Washington's Birthday was fully as enjoyable as, if not more enjoyable than, the Annual of former years. About all present expressed themselves as thoroughly pleased with the evening of rare enjoyment, in other words, with the ability of the Cadet Officers to entertain.

As far as numbers go the ball was very much of a success. There were 100 paid admissions. The caterer, we understood, served 350 people. Of the out-of-town guests there were society leaders from Grafton, Fairmont, Clarksburg, Parkersburg, Wheeling, Mannington and other points in West Virginia. Besides there were those present from the following state: Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, New York, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, and the District of Columbia.

The decorated street cars began to arrive with the dancers as early as 8 o'clock. A half hour later most of those attending were in the Armory. At just half past eight the discharge of a musket and the unfurling of the large flag in the center of the hall announced that the Ball had begun. The beautiful music furnished by Thompson's Orchestra of ten members from Uniontown "struck up" the first two-step at this moment and soon the floor was almost covered with the ladies and their escorts. Throughout there were two-steps and waltzes alternating. There were fifteen dances before the intermission for lunch. Each of these were encores at least once, some twice. As soon as the last of these were played small crowds gathered together seated on chairs about the dance hall. While listening to the strains of a beautiful overture by the orchestra, the happy couples ate leisurely an excellent three-course lunch. For an hour they sat eating and chatting. And then dancing was again begun, the dancers waltzing to the tune of "Il Travators". It was already late, so no encores were given to the ten dances on the second half of the program. At 1:45 the dance concluded and by 2 o'clock the Armory was vacant. All left wishing that they had had longer to stay.

Reception and Banquet of Phi Kappa Phi's, Mar. 3, 1905 District Council Royally Entertained by West Virginia's Alpha

The two big events of the Phi Kappa Psi convention here last week were the Reception on Wednesday evening and the Banquet on Thursday evening.

The former, which was held at the James Cochran house was one of the most enjoyable receptions ever given in Morgantown. The house was filled with guests from eight until eleven o'clock. Those in the receiving line were: Mr. A. W. Porterfield, Professor and Mrs. W. P. Willey, Rev. and Mrs. Buchanan, Rev. M. F. Compton, Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran of Dawson, Pa., Mr. Orra E. Monnette, Cleveland, Ohio, and George C. Foster, of Philadelphia.

Misses Jane Hudson, Jeannette Hayes, Julia McGrew, Sarah Tate, Evelyn Burns, and Ada Langfitt aided in seating and serving the guests. The music of the evening was excellently rendered by Rutter's Band, of Uniontown, Pa.

The banquet on Thursday night lasted from 9:30 until 3:30. Fifty Phi Psi's sat down at the board at the Madera Hotel. A tempting menu was served most excellently. The same orchestra gave the music of the evening that was employed at the reception the evening previous. Enthusiastic songs and yells abounded. Walter Barnes sang a song entitled "Phi Psi in Dixie" which was written especially for the occasion.

At eleven o'clock Hon. Stuart H. Bowman, toastmaster, presided while a long list of eloquent toasts were given. They were: "The Pleiades," Gilbert Miller; "Fraternity," Orra E. Monnette; "The Spirit of West Virginia Alpha," W. C. Meyer; "On the Firing Line," A. V. Smell; "The Sage of Elwell," Geo. A. Foster; "Our Benefactress," (Mrs. Cochran), A. W. Porterfield; "Great Men I have Known," C. D. Willey; "The Phi Psi in Politics," C. E. Carrigan; "The Masontown Alumni Association," Tip Lardin; "The Application," Dr. A. M. Nuchanan.

The Girls' "Gym" Party — Feb. 27, 1909

Monday evening the gymnasium was the scene of a very unique party given by the "Gym Girls" for all the girls of the university. It was a typical country fair. Bosco, the wild man, Madame Isa Cake, the palmist and the fat woman, were there in full force. The Italian organ grinder made quite a hit, while Miss Mance'ne Forman creditably took the part of the Ping Pong photographer.

The dancing pavilion was one of the most popular attractions. Sousa's band played many beautiful airs to which the graceful dancers "tripped the light fantastic toe."

The Merry Widow, commonly called the Ocean Wave, was also very popular and many werea the country beaux and their sweethearts who enjoyed a ride. The races were one of the events of the evening. The fat woman's race was very amusing, and the race between Maud S. and Lucy Dillon, the famous trotters, was to say the least, very exciting. Betting ran high, sums even up to ten cents were recklessly squandered.

The exhibits were excellent, particularly the children's efforts at drawing. There was one article among the farmer's exhibits which caused much wonder and comment. This remarkable exhibit was a hen's egg of the size of a large basketball. A sample bottle of college spirit was also to be seen, though no one seemed to know where it came from, as it is not a local product.

The usual "hot dog" sandwiches were on sale together with hot peanuts, candy, popcorn balls, ice cream cones and red lemonade. Several farmers got a little pifficated by imbibing the lemonade, which was rather strong and had to be removed in the large and capacious patrol by the policeman.

A great crowd of country folks were there, farmers and their wives and numerous children, country swains and their sweethearts.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the unusual form of the entertainment. To Miss Helen DeBerry and her efficient committee all the credit of the paarty is due.

Junior Prom — May 15, 1909

The Junior Prom has come to be considered one of the most brilliant and important social functions of the college year, and the one given by this year's Juniors class in the Armory Friday evening, May 7, was fully up to the standard in every respect. About one hundred and fifty persons were in attendance. A reception was held from eight thirty to eleven o'clock. Light refreshments were served before the dancing began. The program contained the twenty-six regular numbers and four extras. The dancing continued until about three thirty Saturday morning. The music was furnished by Vaughn's orchestra. The Armory was tastefully decorated with the varsity colors and those of the senior and junior classes. One of striking features of the decorations was the large painting of the patron saint of the senior class. The committee on arrangements for the Prom consisted of Misses Dorcas Prichard and Nina Freeman and Messers J. E. Billingsby, W. W. Point Jr., F. R. Koely and John T. Morgan. The patroness were Mesdames D. B. Purinton, E. M. Grant, R. L. Morris, C. H. Patterson, J. N. Simpson, C. M. Babb, C. E. Hogg, H. A. Eaton, E. F. Church, Jr., Edward McNeil, Nathaniel Goodrich, B. H. Hite and Miss Susan M. Moore.

This year's junior class has been noted for being "just a little different" and for "doing things" and doing them well since its members were "we sma' sophs", and it sustained its reputation in giving the Prom.

Mock Military Ball, Brilliant Affair — February 8, 1913 Exquisite Gowns Displayed

Sharply at eight fifteen Monday evening the grand march of the "Mock Military Ball" started, in the artistically decorated rooms of Woman's Hall. The music was furnished by Miss Susan M. Moore, who was dressed in an exquisite black gown. The two large rooms on the first floor were stripped of all furniture and the familiar walls and ceilings completely hidden by lavish decorations of variegated crepe paper, pennants and pillows.

The role of male escort was portrayed by the Misses Hodges, C. Herring, Crummet, Kumler, Lewis Marshall, Elliot, Beltzhoover, Neff, M. Fisher, Kearney and Timmons. While the suits were not made to fit, these would be gentlemen, still, by much pulling and struggling, they made themselves fit the suits, in a way which women only understand. Let it suffice to know that they made fine substitutes for the genuine article. The program consisted of sixteen regular dances, four extras and two specials. The exact nature of the specials cannot be determined, but it is feared they were moonlight without even moonlight.

The feature of the evening was the cab service. The cab was made of a large umbrella with a large green plush covering drooping to the floor. This equipage called first at the rooms of the "Gentlemen", then at the abode of the fair one, after which the gallant studs galloped to the ball-room.

The patronesses Mrs. E. Moore, Miss Susan Moore, Miss Racheal Colwell and Miss Katherine Hedrick were presented with gorgeous bouquets of flowers (papers by the way) which were worn on beautiful evening gowns.

The hilarious dancers were tired of the fun about ten o'clock especially those gentlemen, for, it seemed some of them could not get accustomed to sitting peacefully, so tired, and consequently spent most of the evening standing.

Taking everything into consideration, the "Mock ball" was a pipping success and all those present declared that it was "the best ever" (whatever that means). Many boys were disappointed, not only because they were not invited but more so because they didn't even get a "Look-in."

Cozy corners were in abundance and many delicious and blissful moments between dances and during intermission were spent by the young "fussers" in them.

At eleven o'clock all lights were out and the girls returned to their various apartments to talk it over and make plans for the future.

Junior Prom — May 17, 1913

Final arrangements for the Junior Prom are now being made and judging from the extensive preparations, the affair will be one of the most elaborate held for several years. The committee, with Robert Hogg as Chairman, has been working diligently for several weeks. The event will be held Friday evening in the Armory and Wright's Orchestra, which needs no introduction locally, has been secured to furnish the music, the interior of the Armory is now being artistically decorated for the occasion and when the work is completed the building will present a beautiful appearance.

The reception starts at 8:30 o'clock and the grand march will be held at nine. The intermission will come between the tenth and eleventh dances and a delicious luncheon will be served during the short rest period. The dance program will include four regular dances, with four extras. The committee in charge is composed of Robert Hogg, chairman Boyd Carfer, Max Wright, Charles Teter, and Eric Bishop.

SOCIETY

FIRST CADET HOP

University Dance — October 26, 1935

The first official University Dance of the season was held in the University Armory opening the semesters social calendar. The Esquires played the program of dances.

Phi Kappa Sigma — November 7

Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity held its fall dance at the chapter house on McLain Avenue. The rooms were decorated with cornstaks and pumpkins. Bill Hart and his orchestra supplied the music. George Brown, John E. Cannaday and Elwyn Hughes were in charge of the arrangements.

Cadet Hop — November 14

The first Cadet Hop of the season was held from nine to one o'clock in the American Legion Armory. Paul Campbell and his California Ramblers furnished the music. A feature of the evening was a silent drill presented during intermission by pledges of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization.

University Dance — November 15

A University Dance was held in the American Legion Armory in celebration of the West Virginia-Duquesne football game. The dance was sponsored by Rhododendron, honorary Junior organization. Evelene Miller was in charge of arrangements, and music was by Albert Good.

Thanksgiving Day

The Womens Student Government Association sponsored a tea dance from two to five at the University Armory on Thanksgiving afternoon. Albert Good and his West Virginia Colonels furnished the music. The women asked their escorts and stags.

Pi Beta Phi — November 22

Active members of West Virginia Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi were honored by the pledges at the annual pledge dance in the University Armory. Albert Good and his West Virginia Colonels played for the dance program.

Kappa Kappa Gamma — November 23

Kappa Kappa Gamma pledges gave an informal dance at the University Armory for the actives and alumnas of the chapter. Albert Good and his Colonels played. Corinne Neely was in charge of arrangements.

Alpha Phi — November 23

Beta Iota of Alpha Phi honored their pledges with an informal dance at the chapter house on Spruce Street. Music was furnished by the Esquires. Mary Ann Cooper and Helen Turley were in charge of arrangements.

Men's Panhellenic — December 6

The first Mens Panhellenic was given in the American Legion Armory. Sammy Kay and his orchestra from Cleveland played for the program of dances. Harold B. Eagle was in charge of the arrangements.

Gamma Phi Beta — December 7

The Christmas theme was emphasized in the decorations at an informal dance given by the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at Newman Hall. Joe Beatty's Orchestra played, and Gazelle Littman was in charge of arrangements.

Sigma Delta Tau — December 7

Sigma Delta Tau, social sorority, entertained at a formal dance in the Jewish Community Center with Bill Hart and his orchestra furnishing the music. Sorority colors of cafe au lait and blue were used in decorating.

Alpha Xi Delta — December 7

The Esquires furnished the music for a dance given by Alpha Xi Delta sorority at the Masonic Temple. Appointments were informal, and among the chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. Sam Morris. The dance program lasted from eight to eleven-thirty.

Chi Omega — December 7

An informal dance was given by Chi Omega social sorority in the University Armory. Arrangements were made by Eileen McHenry and Mildred Simmons. Albert Good and his West Virginia University Colonels furnished the music. Among the chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cox, Miss Isabelle Hayes, and the house mother, Mrs. Cavalier.

Woman's Hall Formal — December 13

The Woman's Hall Formal was held in the American Legion Armory. Decorations were in the Christmas colors, red and green. Music was furnished by Jack Beatty's Orchestra from Fairmont

(We're gettin tired of this drivell!)

Fraternity Night — December 14

Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Nu, Kappa Alpha, and Sigma Chi social fraternities entertained with informal dances in various Kampus Korner. When no one had showed up by ten o'clock, the brethren all adjourned to Chink's and a good time was had by all. Until the dern jern closed. Damn them laws!

Delta Gamma — January 17, 1936

The Delta Gamma's ship was sunk at (where was that dance anyway) well anyhow — The Governor's daughter was general chairman and Eloise Reppert strung the streamers (she fell off a horse on April 13 and sprained a wrist — Herbie King says "I'll go get the horse) Albert Good and his orchestra, non union so far as we know, played some sympathies.

University Dance — January 18, 1936

H. Hershel Simms retired to his estate on Cheat lake after this dance. It seemed to be much ado about nothing (Boy! are we clever!) The American Legion armory was the scene of the belly rub.

Military Ball — February 3, 1936

Four hundred people joined the Veterans of Future Wars after this dance. Izzy and Ruth and me and all the boby scout staff from the armory on the hill was there. Frank Dailey and his Columbia Broadcasting Pick-ups tooted. Old Davies gal is singing with 'em now.

Leap Year Dance — February 8, 1936

The Women's Sour Grapes Amalgamation filled the stills for this one. Some of the campus big-shots' terrific ego suffered at this hop — and was their gal's swuaking because they were stuck all evening. Sweat broke up the dance at 11:30. They all got their boots on and went on a hay ride!

University Dance — February 15, 1936

H. Herschel Simms returned from his country state to throw this brawl, as his funds, as usual, were getting low. Feb. 16, Mr. Simms took his chaeuffer back to the estate to sit on the front porch, sip mint julep's and watch the darkies pick cotton in the fields. (Hugh says this is swell stuff)

Women's Pan Hellenic — February 21, 1936

The Pisegah Troubadours better known as Bob McKinley's Esquires attempted to pacify the squirming crowd with little success. Everybody got Paned here. After all, it was a woman's night. (Gee! we're gettin' sleepy).

Alumni Dance — February 27, 1936

Following the West Virginia-Penn State basketball game all the sheepskin gatherers were carried to the armory where they were cooled for the dance. Albert Good and his Yankee's (Union now) played "Stars and Stripes Forever" all evening (Get the pun)

Phi Kappa Psi — February 28, 1936

This was different — they danced. (but not in the ball room) Arch Wilson made the money on this (Oh you Simms) They ate — Gawd! was that chicken tough! Jack Beatty was there. So was his orchestra — but they never did seem to get together.

Pi Kappa Phi — February 29

Prof. Johnny Winter was there taking down psychological data for future reference. Albert Good and his Cossacks (Russian Communists) were there with revamped vodka. Morgantown's only fire proof hotel was the scene of this sizzling fling (censored).

Mardi Gras — March 6

After General George Guthrie and his Beta storm troops raided the Fi Batar booth and made way with all the tickets they managed to pull a coup d'etat and smuggled crown prince Victor Emmanuel Ross (Union) to the ascendancy of the coveted throne. To make the blood of the royal family uniform. The Alpha Xi Delta Amazons were in cahoots with the vulnerable judges and boldly presented Milly Young (with the pasteboard crown) as Ross's betrothed. It is rumored that the money the Y. W. C. A. made on this festival will not be sent to missionaries in Africa.

University Dance — March 7

Poor old Herschel.

Junior Prom — March 13

Reed Raines and his neophytes rehearsed during this dance. Tuck Kelly was beautiful as the queen. Dorothy Prager, Helen Baker, Mildred Simmons, Eleanor Meadows, Merle Ferrell, Marjorie Tillis, Jean Handlan, Gazelle Littman, Regina Pickus and Margaret Wilson also ran. Louis Corson was a member of the Junior Prom committee until he came out in favor of Susie Zilch at which time he was quietly dropped. All the fellows who attended said henceforth they will spell Prom "prune".

Kappa Kappa Gamma — March 14

They all sat down to a hundred barren plates. They gorged and regurgitated and when they were done they all wiggled to the Wash-Lee Zither band. Mary Jane Cassidy was responsible.

Second Cadet Hop — March 20

Despite the fact that the band all drowned and they danced in bathing suits the hop was a flop. It was a grand and glorious (if I may coin a phrase) sight to see the eds and the coeds come floating up in their gondolas. With the exception of Bill Gadd and Milly Young who rode up grandly in a punt. Formal pledging of Scabbard and Blade took place. — Poor devils.

Freshmen Wing Formal — March 21

The only person present was the Monticola Society Editor. It was a grand dance. Catfish Connel was in the receiving line. The girls tried hard anyway.

Delta Gamma — March 21

The good ship "Delta Gamma" was salvaged for one more night. Formal this time. The anchors held the stags at bay. It was rumored (what was it that was rumored?) — "I don't know — aw, never mind — let it go." Albert and his Goody Goody Boys tooted.

Women's Hall Formal — April 17

Straight from a successful run at Chink's famous inter-fraternity club room, Al Good and his Offtuners played at this barn dance. Somebody brought a Nickelodeon — But why bring a Nickelodeon? (Are we boring you?) Nobody had any nickels. Remember the Mardi Gras!

Kappa Alpha — April 18

The Wash-Jeff dozen (what is this, a football game?) blew real hard in vain (just like we are). Nothing much happened here except that Dick Heath distinguished himself at dinner as a gastronomic success.

Delta Tau Delta — April 18

The Delts gave their dance on the fifth, sixth and seventh floors of the Hotel Morgan. The chaperones were on the eighth. Some guy with a white coat (Charlie Houlst) started off the spring season's styles claiming you're only as old as you feel. And his date agreed. Al Good and the King's men with their Red Coats furnished the music for the five couples and Charlie Houlst who danced.

Men's Night — April 24

Gawdamightly, what a night! Bunion plaster stock soared to new heights by the time everyone had been to all the dances. Phi Sigma Delta, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, The Farmers, and the Budding Young Medics claimed that they were not responsible for what happened before, during or after their respective dances. The Med dance smelled like formaldehyde, and the Farmers' Fling smelled like You Know What. And the esthetic senses of some olfactory inclined faculty members was not improved at any of the fraternity dances either. It was awful! There were four Post-Primary brawls. Harold B. Eagle was the only reported casualty. He sustained a broken hand when he tried to get out of an elevator at the Hotel Morgan. What enticements could that famous hostelry have held for our esteemed boondoggler? Six bands played for six dances, but nobody payed any attention.

Beta Theta Pi - Sigma Chi — April 25

The Morgantown Soft Drink Parlor on Chestnut Street did a landslide business on this night. Not a trace of sobriety was to be found. Both dances stank in the smelly sense of the word. The Betas claimed that it was because a Sigma Chi was around, and the Sigma Chis claimed vice versa. Personally we agree with both of them. The refreshment stand on the third floor at 225 Belmar was still going at eight o'clock Sunday evening, with Gray Silver presiding.

Men's Pan-Hellenic — May 1

This Political Rally got under way at nine bells and was well attended. Nobody was conspicuously intoxicated. Much hand shaking and back slapping was in evidence. "Of course you'll vote for me" was the favorite phrase. Ross Smith and his Johnstown River Rats competed with the political speeches.

Pi Beta Phi — May 2

The Pi Phis ran competition with a carnival at Granville as to which could get the most people. The gals had a slight edge. Their dance was free. The odds swung in favor of the carnival when it was learned that rides on the merry-go-round were free. The Sisters of the Arrow retaliated with a speciality number by the Ethel Flash. This brought down the house. The Washington-Jefferson Gum Band furnished the ditties.

Monticola Dance — May 9

The flop of flops! The biggest social bust of the season. Even the presentation of the glamorous Campus Beauties couldn't save this dance. We don't know why they called this the Monticola Dance. Everybody, including the water boy, had a hand in it. The Monticola had no part of it. George Silver and his Coal Miners played.

Alpha Xi Delta — May 16

The Sisters of The Quill gushed forth from their lair on Spruce Street to attend their annual Quilting Brawl, while the crowd stood back and cheered. The gals were feeling hospitable and stag bids were sent to all the traveling salesmen staying overnight at the Hotel Morgan. This did much to add to the gaiety and life of the occasion. The Esquires, under the management of Bob "Chisler" McKinley, furnished the drinks at the expense of the organization.

Senior Ball — June 8

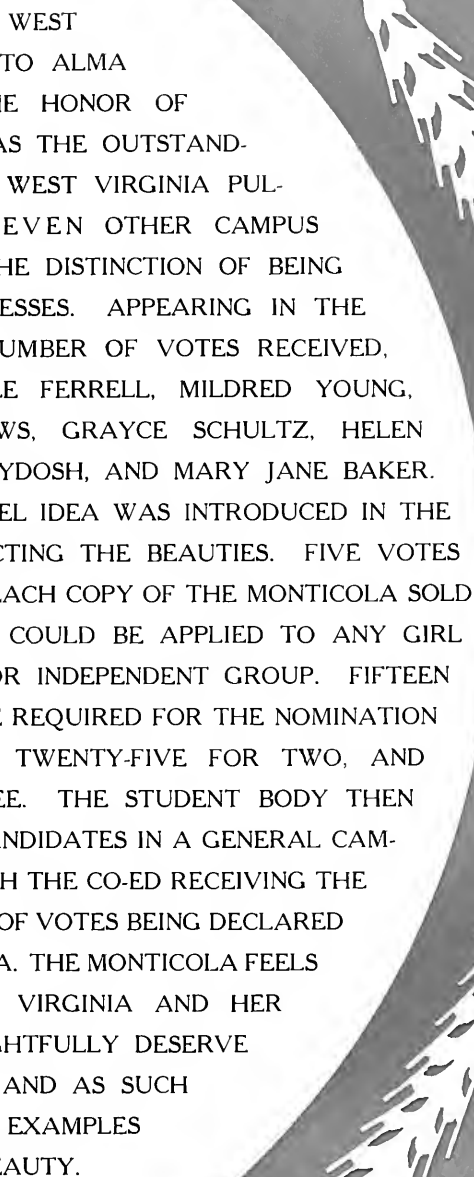

As before, all the big shots in the state and nation will be invited and as before, none will come. But still the party will go on and on and on. Thus the climax of a social season of lousy dances, lousier dances and lousier than that dances is reached. Still everyone will go home and brag about the swell dances they went to "up at school". But we know, don't we?

THANK GOD THIS IS OVER!

ALL HAIL, MISS WEST VIRGINIA! TO ALMA FRASER GOES THE HONOR OF BEING SELECTED AS THE OUTSTANDING EXAMPLE OF WEST VIRGINIA PULCHRITUDE. TO SEVEN OTHER CAMPUS BEAUTIES GOES THE DISTINCTION OF BEING CHOSEN AS PRINCESSES. APPEARING IN THE ORDER OF THE NUMBER OF VOTES RECEIVED, THEY ARE: MERLE FERRELL, MILDRED YOUNG, ELEANOR MEADOWS, GRAYCE SCHULTZ, HELEN BAKER, MARIE GAYDOSCH, AND MARY JANE BAKER. THIS YEAR A NOVEL IDEA WAS INTRODUCED IN THE METHOD OF SELECTING THE BEAUTIES. FIVE VOTES WERE GIVEN FOR EACH COPY OF THE MONTICOLA SOLD AND THE TOTALS COULD BE APPLIED TO ANY GIRL BY A SORORITY OR INDEPENDENT GROUP. FIFTEEN BOOK-VOTES WERE REQUIRED FOR THE NOMINATION OF ONE BEAUTY, TWENTY-FIVE FOR TWO, AND THIRTY FOR THREE. THE STUDENT BODY THEN VOTED ON THE CANDIDATES IN A GENERAL CAMPUS ELECTION, WITH THE CO-ED RECEIVING THE LARGEST NUMBER OF VOTES BEING DECLARED MISS WEST VIRGINIA. THE MONTICOLA FEELS THAT MISS WEST VIRGINIA AND HER PRINCESSES RIGHTFULLY DESERVE THEIR POSITIONS, AND AS SUCH ARE OUTSTANDING EXAMPLES OF CAMPUS BEAUTY.

Typical Seniors

AS A NEW feature in the 1936 Monticola, we present to the student body of West Virginia University a typical Senior Man and Senior Woman, elected by popular vote. George Guthrie and Lucy Hoblitzell were chosen by their fellow students for their outstanding activities and personal merits.

For the past four years these two students have given valuable time and work over and above that required by the daily life of the University in order to forward the interests of their own social organizations, the University as a whole, and the state of West Virginia. We feel sure that in taking their place in the ranks of our honored alumni they will continue to further the interests of their State and University. We are proud to have had them with us these past four years.

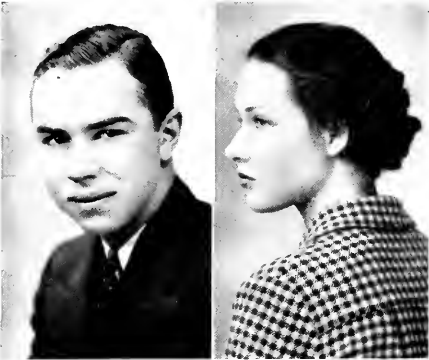

GEORGE N. GUTHRIE

LUCY HOBLITZELL

Typical Freshmen

IN THE SELECTION of Jane Downs and Ned Shott by popular ballot as the typical Freshmen we feel that the students of West Virginia University have chosen wisely. They have put the stamp of approval upon two students who, during their short stay here, have already shown their abilities not only as students but through their extra-curricular activities. They have displayed a willingness to devote time and effort to the betterment of their University. We are confident that in the future that they will take their place among the first ranks of the Alumni of West Virginia University.

BACK IN THE HORSE AND BUGGY DAYS—

Hartley's began business in Fairmont. In 1877 — when women wore bustles and students grew whiskers, because youth had little accent then.

WE GRADUATED TO BICYCLES—

Along about 1898 — and women took to bloomers and students waited on their ladies with the aroma of sensen haunting their palpitating breath.

TODAY IS AUTOMOBILE-LY and AEROPLANE-LY DIFFERENT—

The Hartley's of 1877 could not serve you NOW . . . but the Hartley's of 1936 — a COMPLETE department store, occupying five big floors filled with metropolitan merchandise, is ADEPTLY your store. Command us!

PROGRESS

There are few fields where the necessity for progress—the demand for new ideas, is as pronounced as in the production of School Annuals. ✧ Here in Canton we take pride in not only keeping pace, but in setting the pace for innovations and changes in this highly progressive field. ✧ When you work with Canton you are hand in hand with experienced people, constantly on the alert to sense the wants of Annual publishers, and quick to change from the old order, and offer new and unusual ideas to progressive editors.

Little Boy: "Say, mister let me have six of those diapers."

Drug Clerk: "Here you are, sonny. That'll be ninety cents for the diapers, and three cents for the tax."

Little Boy: "The hell with the tacks. Me brudder uses safety pins."

He: "Are you single?"

She: "What the hell, do I look like twins?"

The horse trader stood watching his young son exchange a rheumatic old mare for a fine young colt. When the deal was completed, he strode up to the boy. "Congratulations, son," he said, "You're just a gyp off the old block."

"That girl's a virtuoso!"

"Don't be silly, she's been married twice."

Years of Pleasing Service

We point with genuine pride to more than eighteen years of satisfactory service to West Virginia students and alumni.

He was in Chem lab, and the prof was explaining certain reactions to him.

"This liquid turns blue if your unknown is basic, and it turns red if the unknown is acid."

"Sorry, but I'm color blind," apologized the brain trust. "Have you got anything with a bell on it?"—Medley.

Six-year-old Mary awoke about 2 o'clock in the morning. "Tell me a story, mamma," she pleaded.

"Hush, darling," said mother, "daddy will be in soon and tell us both one."

Father: "While your mother and I were away, sonny, did your sister entertain any young men in the house?"

Very Precocious Young Brother: "I shouldn't venture to state positively, sir, that she entertained them. But I must say she put forth her best efforts."

He—"If I kiss you, will you hold anything against me?"

She—"That depends on you."

TAKE A TIP FROM LIGHTING RIGHT HERE AT THE UNIVERSITY

Rest your eyes on these illustrations - - - one from the Men's Dormitory, the other from Women's Hall. In either, there is evidence that good lighting is putting in its appearance at W.
V. U.

Good light! - - - light that helps instead of harmis your eyes - - - is no accident - - - it results from the following certain definite laws of physics and physiology.

Unless you want to cripple your eyes - - - read a - study by only good light. How can you recognize it? By having our free sight-meter test made of your present lighting, or by buying certified lighting - - - that which is produced by I. E. S. Lamps. Lamps of this type can be bought for as little as $3.95 at your dealers.

How True to Life

You can always tell a Senior
By his strut around the town.
You can always tell a Junior
By his foolish-looking frown.
You can always tell a Sophomore
By his collar, tie and such.
You can always tell a Freshie,
But you cannot tell him much.

Kat: "They call that girl Spearmint."

Sup: "Why, is she wriggly?"

Kat: "No, but she is always after meals."

"Marry you! Why you couldn't even keep me in pin money!"

"Maybe not, but I expect any girl I marry to be past that age."

COOPERATION

Mr. Mertes
Mr. E. R. Adler

Mr. Hugh Knee
Mr. Hitchcock

THE SPLENDID COOPERATION of the men pictured above has aided the Monticola Staff greatly in their efforts to publish an annual worthy of West Virginia University.

Mr. Knee, the photographer, worked day and night in order to have all pictures ready in time; Mr. Mertes, acting as a middle-man for the Canton Engraving Co., kept the work at its best; Mr. Hitchcock, artist, directed all art work; and last, but not least, Mr. E. R. Adler, Vice-President of the Cantor Engraving Co. — a man who inspired confidence, a man to whom the Monticola owes a sincere vote of thanks.

Realizing that all the work is not done by the members of the staff, we thank you, gentlemen, for your fine cooperation.
